NEW INSTRUCTOR BIOS

JENNY BURKE-ATKIN: UPP-3. Jenny has been teaching yoga in the area since 1998. She has received her training from the Yoga Alliance, Yoga Therapy Institute, and the Iyengar Yoga Institute. Since then, she has trained with many great teachers to learn how to apply yoga to adults and children. Jenny has also attended many workshops to enhance her practice. She also completed her 100-hour Certified Yoga Therapist program at Iyengar Yoga Institute in 2013. She continues to use all the tools that have been given to her to offer a safe and effective class for her students. She is known for her fun, energetic classes and the fact that any job that can be done barefoot is her favorite! She has a degree in plant science and is also an avid gardener. She feels that her feet are her body's safety net and that turning her feet outward helps her find her balance. She prefers to teach at Hubbard Hall so she can see and share her love of nature with her students and with the beauty of Hubbard Hall in her classes for adults and children.

JAN BUONANNO: Jan is a yoga teacher, a yoga enthusiast, a yogini, and a natural chef. She loves sharing her knowledge and skills so that anyone that can do that can do that can do it at Hubbard Hall. She is a certified yoga instructor with a degree in plant science. She has many years of experience in teaching and sharing her passion for wellness with others. She encourages her students to find their own path to their own health and well-being. She teaches with a fun, lighthearted style that inspires her students to explore and enjoy the practice of yoga. She loves sharing her love of yoga and her knowledge of the benefits of yoga with her students at Hubbard Hall.

HOW TO REGISTER FOR A CLASS: Please register in advance so that you may keep your spot on the class schedule. This also helps to avoid unnecessary cancellation of a class. If you need to cancel your registration, please give as much notice as possible. If you are unable to attend a class, please let us know so we can fill your spot.
