ABOUT HUBBARD HALL

Hubbard Hall is a thriving arts center dedicated to cultivating, sustaining and promoting the cultural life of our rural community in Washington County, NY and throughout the Capital Region. We gather people from all walks of life to create, learn, and grow together, while developing, producing, and presenting world-class art and artists. We are an arts incubator, a training ground, a magnet for artistic activity, a safe haven for risk-taking, an economic driver for our region, and the beating heart of our community.

PRODUCTIONS AND PRESENTATIONS: Theater, Music, Opera, Dance, and the Visual Arts

Since 1878 Hubbard Hall has developed, produced, and presented theater, music, dance, and the visual arts, and in recent years has become a world-class development center for new work. Since 1977, Hubbard Hall's current nonprofit has engaged thousands of artists, students, and audience members in acclaimed productions of theater, opera, music, and dance.

FACILITIES

Hubbard Hall operates four buildings across our campus, including the original 1878 opera house and three recently renovated freight yard buildings containing dance, music and visual arts studios, offices, arts exhibit spaces, and a black box theater. We also own and operate the Cambridge Community Garden, a collaborative garden managed entirely by volunteers and engaging hundreds of students each year with opportunities to grow and harvest their own vegetables; as well as a Quebécois bread oven, available for baking fresh bread and pizza year-round. Recognized as an arts institution in the state of New York, Hubbard Hall is a national model for community-based arts organizations.

ABOUT THE VILLAGE OF CAMBRIDGE, NY

The Village of Cambridge is an eclectic community filled with families, business people, artists, retired people and many others who have fallen in love with our small town atmosphere, located centrally with access to big cities and towns, and some of the best scenery in New York. We are the home to a Main Street filled with a world-class arts center, a thriving independent bookstore, bakery-café, diner, barbershop, hair salon(s), microbrewery housed in our old railroad station, Quebécois bread oven, public library, local grocery, famers' market, artists' co-op and food co-op, to name just a few amenities.

RESIDENCIES

Hubbard Hall Residencies support the exploration and development of new and emerging work. The residencies occur in Cambridge, NY (four hours north of NYC), in Hubbard Hall and across the Hall's campus with visiting companies, artists and ensembles. Focusing on the development of new and devised work, this residency series invites artists to develop new work in beautiful, quiet and artistically rich surroundings far from the noise and pressure of the city, and then to share portions of that work with local audiences via a final showcase sharing (reading, workshop performance or simply demonstration/discussion depending on the project, artistic process, and artists' comfort). This series also allows audiences to explore and learn about the development process and intends to support the development of local, regional and national artists and seeks to further develop our local talent pool through exposure to visiting artists. Typical residencies include honoraria for all participating artists and housing. Artists are responsible for their own travel costs. Residencies can last anywhere from two-three days to two-three weeks.

RECENT PROJECTS

Recent residencies included The Conversationalists, SKiNFoLK: An American Show, and Preparedness. For many years The Freight Project operated as a residency series on the Hubbard Hall campus, resulting in dozens of successful projects, including the development of The Hunger Artist with Sinking Ship Productions (Drama Desk Nomination). Other recent Hubbard Hall residencies have included a dance residency with the legendary Twyla Tharp, a theater residency with Tony Award winner Rupert Holmes, the development of a new production of I Am My Own Wife by Doug Wright, and shorter-term residencies in puppetry, dance, movement, theater, music, opera and even radio.

HUBBARD HALL PROVIDES

- Housing and Honoraria (typically $500 per artist per week, depending on project);
  - Hubbard Hall will make every attempt to provide housing within walking distance of the space. In some cases housing may be provided within a 15-minute drive of the space, requiring transportation to be provided by either artist or Hubbard Hall (to be determined per project).
  - Access to the Hubbard Hall main stage space, studio theater and/or dance studio (and other spaces as needed).
  - Limited technical support (basic lighting and sound as needed).
  - Basic set elements, including chairs, table and/or playing cubes.
  - Listing of your project on our website and social media outlets.
  - Box Office & Front of House support for showcase.
  - Guidance and support in helping to shepherd this project towards greater exposure and funding after residency.

RESIDENCY PARTICIPANTS PROVIDE

- All other expenses and elements not covered by Hubbard Hall including: casting, all physical production expenses (including any necessary costumes and props).
- Transportation to and from Cambridge, NY.

PROPOSAL PROCEDURES

1. Please provide us with a cover sheet about your work and proposed project, which should include the following:
